

Welcome to CWC Mt. Diablo Branch!

Join us on Saturday, March 11th for our 3-Hour Luncheon Workshop:

Finish Your Book in Three Drafts* with Stuart Horwitz

This presentation will discuss the best outlook and direction for each of the three drafts so that you can increase your efficiency, satisfaction, and engagement with both your writing process and your final product.

Accomplished and aspiring writers will learn to create a complex narrative such as how to:

- Generate a lot of material and then use action steps to transform that material.
- Make sure your book has one “theme” – and one theme only.
- Separate your work into scenes and use this disassembly to diagnose what’s going wrong with your manuscript.
- Work with beta readers to push your manuscript forward in a conclusive and non-anxious way.

Stuart Horwitz is a ghostwriter, independent editor, and founder and principal of Book Architecture (www.BookArchitecture.com). Book Architecture’s clients have reached the bestseller list in both fiction and nonfiction, and have appeared on The Oprah Winfrey Show, Today, The Tonight Show, and in the most prestigious journals in their respective fields. He lives in Rhode Island with his wife and two daughters.

Stuart developed the Book Architecture Method over fifteen years of helping writers get from first draft to final draft. In the process, those same writers have become authors: signing with top literary agencies and landing book deals at coveted publishing houses.

He is the author of three books on writing: Blueprint Your Bestseller: Organize and Revise Any Manuscript with the Book Architecture Method (Penguin/Perigee), which was named one of 2013’s best books about writing by The Writer magazine, Book Architecture: How to Plot and Outline Without Using a Formula (2015), which became an Amazon bestseller, and Finish Your Book in Three Drafts: How to Write a Book, Revise a Book, and Complete a Book While You Still Love It which was released in June of 2016.
