Next Program*Saturday, September 14, 2013*Publishing both Short and Full-length Works

Judith Newton

Judith will talk about

- transitioning from academic writing to memoir
- publishing short pieces for a general audience
- publishing long works with a hybrid press
- blogging and guest blogging
- using social media
- working with publicists
- what she would do differently

Judith Newton is Professor Emerita at U.C. Davis and the author and co-editor of five works of non-fiction on nineteenth century British women writers, women's history, and men's movements. Excerpts from her memoir, Tasting Home: Coming of Age in the Kitchen, won a bronze Independent Publisher's Award (2013) and is a Finalist for a Reader's Favorite Award this fall. Her current short works have appeared in the Redwood Coast Review, the Huffington Post, POETALK poetry magazine, and at <http://ipinionsyndicate.com>. She is currently at work on a feminist mystery. Follow Judith at her blog: <http://tasting-home.com>

Added benefit this month: Writer's Table with Rick Reed: It's about Crime, a discussion of true law enforcement procedures and facts.
