Writing the Page-Turner:

Keep Your Readers Up Past Their Bedtime

Jordan Rosenfeld

Jordan Rosenfeld, writing teacher and author of four writing guides, cuts to the core of compelling story—whether fiction or memoir—through these key craft areas:

- Building a strong story backbone (plot/narrative arc)
- Infusing tension on every page
- Creating evocative sensory imagery
- Demonstrating strong characters/narrators
- Mastering point of view

Jordan is author of the novels Forged in Grace and Night Oracle and the writing guides: Make a Scene and Write Free, and the forthcoming Writer's Digest books: A Writer's Guide to Persistence (April), and with Martha Alderson, Deep Scenes (October). She is managing editor of the popular online magazine Sweatpants & Coffee.com and her essays and articles have been published in: Brain, Child, the New York Times, Purple Clover, Role/Reboot, the Rumpus, the San Francisco Chronicle, the Washington Post and on KQED Radio's

The California Report among others. She blogs about writing and persistence at: www.jordanrosenfeld.net.
