Mt Diablo Branch Welcomes
Literary Agent Ted Weinstein

Wise Words from Ted Weinstein, who will talk about literary management. Weinstein represents authors of a wide range of nonfiction books for adults. He is a member of the Association of Authors' Representatives (AAR), Authors Guild, Northern California Science Writers Association, American Historical Association, and Organization of American Historians.

His specialties include narrative nonfiction, contemporary culture, current affairs and politics, biography and history, business, science and technology, environment, food and cooking, health and medicine.

Weinstein will discuss the basics of a successful nonfiction book project, including an overview of current publishing trends and the framework for an effective proposal . . . what's needed to navigate the path from book idea to author tour. He will leave plenty of time for questions.

More information about Ted, his agency and his clients can be found at www.twliterary.com.

Join us to hear about the important trends in contemporary publishing - March 12th, 11:30 a.m.
